DIRECTOR
GROUP 210

Returned herewith is applicant's Amendment A (Paper No. 42) filed March 10, 1986 in patent application Serial Number 06/787,692. Said paper is returned to applicant under 37 CFR 1.3 for failure to conduct business with the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office with decorum and courtesy.

Examples of applicant's failure to conduct business with decorum and courtesy are found in the following excerpts from Paper No. 42:

"As is well known among those who are competent in the art of inverters,"

Page 5, paragraph 1:

"When Examiner states ---- he demonstrates a gross lack of understanding of basic electrical engineering."

Page 8, lines 27-29:

"It is evident from Examiner's remarks that he has very little understanding of basic electronic circuits: too little to permit him to properly prosecute instant application."

Page 9, paragraph 1:

n) It appears to Applicant that Examiner's understanding of the art of inverters and electronic circuits is far too limited to permit effective prosecution of the instant application; which limited understanding has resulted in the raising and handling of a large number of unnecessary issues.

Applicant encloses a copy of his latest letter to the Commissioner, and suggests that Examiner read it: it would be conducive to more effective prosecution of this and future applications. Also, Applicant would be interested in hearing any comments Examiner might have in respect to the proposals contained in the letter.

The last Office action mailed December 9, 1985 set a shortened statutory period for response to expire three (3) months from the date thereof. Applicant's response was timely filed on March 10, 1986 with a certificate of mailing.

Following is a suggested format for the certificate of mailing under 37 CFR 1.8(c) which should be included with all correspondence:

"I hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the United States Postal Service as first class mail in an envelope addressed to: Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, Washington, D.C. 20231, on.....".
